

PUBLIC ART PROGRAM PROJECT STATUS MATRIX

March 23, 2023

PROJECT / PROGRAM	ARTIST	CONTACT(S)	STATUS	NEXT STEPS	COMMENTS
Fine Balance	Brian Goggin	Brian Goggin Chris Lynch (architect) PPAC Ad Hoc Subcommittee Christopher Smith Melissa Abercrombie Anne Digges	Second milestone payment issued for artist to begin first phase of fabrication work. BG has submitted the project Building permit application package to the City and the Building Division has sent comments back. As of 3/17/23, BG has resubmitted with corrections to plans.	Fabrication mid-point review is April/May 2023. Recommended PPAC subcommittee tour of BG's studio with staff depending on artist's availability.
Small Artwork Commission 2023	N/A	N/A	March PPAC meeting with have Committee suggestions of ranked project sites for upcoming SAC 2023 opportunity. Staff will check with appropriate City staff/CCB's for eligibility of sites and confirm at April PPAC meeting to move forward with RFP publication.	Site confirmation at April 2023 PPAC meeting. PPAC may direct staff to publish RFP call to artists after review and approval.
Hidden Petaluma ("Banners")	Various - Petaluma Arts Center (PAC)	PAC ED – TBD PPAC Ad Hoc Subcommittee Anne Digges Cheryl Coldiron Ally Spongr	Banners to be installed this spring.	Synchronize timeline for approximately 12-month display of banners.	All of $25,000 grant paid to PAC.
Community Art Grant Program	Re:public Climate Ready Campaign	Re:public Cinda Gilliland Drake Cunningham Climate Action/Ready Campaign (CRC) Rhianna Frank	Grant applications presented/reviewed at 3/24/22 PPAC mtg. All approved. Remaining payments: Re:public - $5,000 CAC - $4,800 Re:public: working with RMPC and Parks and Recreation to update scope and plan. Anticipating pulling permits spring/summer. CRC: Installation of bus shelters murals scheduled for March/April 2023.	Re:public: will submit new scope and timeline to City when ready to apply for permits. PPAC will be informed about updates. CRC: artist payments occurring and will be reflected on Q3 budget. RF will be added to upcoming PPAC agenda to do final report out.	PPAC has not provided further steps or interest to launching another grant cycle or redrafting the grant program.

PROJECT / PROGRAM	ARTIST	CONTACT(S)	STATUS	NEXT STEPS	COMMENTS
Woven Stories (Kenilworth JHS)	Calderon-Delgado	Rude Calderon Roberto Delgado PPAC Ad Hoc Subcommittee Christopher Smith Cheryl Coldiron	Artists are underway in fabrication. Halfway milestone approaching in end of Q3 with next milestone payment.	Fabrication of artwork and continued dialogue with local resources (i.e. CAIMCC, Northwest Information Center, Federated Indians of Graton Rancheria)
Kenilworth Playground Public Art	TBD	Drew Halter (Parks Dir.) Erica Jacobs (DPW PM) Jonathan Sanglerat (DPW Engineer)	PPAC creates project goals for RFQ applicants to respond to in application. Staff creates selection criteria using goals and best practices research.	RFQ aims to publish in April 2023.
Mary Fuller McChesney Estate Acquisitions	N/A	Jeannie Sinella – Executor of MCM estate Dennis Collabi – Managing MCM estate sales Joe Cochrane – former Pet Reg Librarian and volunteer	PPAC consideration to recommend Council to approve spending for project acquisition and installation contracting.	If recommended by PPAC, Council agenda presentation for approval in late spring/early summer 2023.	PPAC's selection process of specific artworks to continue with input from Calabi and Sinella. Selection of specific artworks not required for Council review.
Petaluma Arts Center Partnership	N/A	ED of PAC Anne Digges – PAC rep/board member and PPAC member Melissa Abercrombie – PPAC chair	Preliminary meeting held to discuss vision and scope of support.	PAC staff to create proposal of available services and support that PPAC could fund.	