I will keep it short. You will most likely hear from many people.

I am writing to ask NO NEW rental protections. The new state laws are still so new and untested.

They are already very different and helpful to tenants. Do not Re invent the wheel..... please let it be. No EXTRA rental laws.

Thank you for reading....

The new California laws have not yet had a chance to be proven to work. Already a big change. Please do not institute new extra protections.
